

FY 2019 Strategic Industry Partnership Grant Recipients

Organization	Purpose	Industry
AOBA Educational Foundation	The Foundation will use a 12-week paid internship program to help DC residents gain access to lucrative, high-demand careers in building operations and the skilled trades.	Construction
Byte Back	Byte Back trains low-income, low-tech adults by helping them to build technical skills through industry-recognized certifications in the Information Technology (IT) workforce.	Information Technology
DC Central Kitchen	DC Central Kitchen provides a fourteen-week intensive training program designed to help District residents pursue careers in the hospitality industry sector.	Hospitality
Goodwill, DC	Goodwill of Greater Washington will offer technical skills in Security and Law to residents of the District of Columbia.	Security and Law